Editors Suggestion: Share your copy with your local Library or Historical Society, if they don't receive it - You are welcome to make a copy of the paper - This is a Not For Profit paper to help gather family information - the more circulation, the better. At this time, Jan 1997 forward, it is not copyrighted by me...

From the Editor: Our trip May & June to England and Scotland was wonderful. The land is very beautiful with rolling hills of green and rock fences built hundreds of years ago. The Castles were, as you'd expect. Awesome! There is so much history to absorb over there, you'd have to stay a year. We enjoyed the trip very much and traveled to many of my ancestral areas of Durham, England and Udney, Scotland, on my mother and fathers line. (not Bonnell's) Larry searched seriously for the Loch Ness Monster. It was very windy and cold, they say 'it' only has been seen on clear smooth water days!

The people were exceedingly friendly (until they got behind the wheel of their cars!). The roads in the older towns are very, very narrow, fast drivers, no shoulders, but the view can't be beat. We didn't go for Bonnell research, but when I found something with 'our' name on it, I copied it and it is in this issue.

Sad News: I'm sorry to report that Dorothy May (Carty) Bonnell, your editors husbands mother passed away suddenly Monday June 29. She is the mother of my husband Larry and Ten's husband Bob Bonnell. It has left a big hole the lives of our husbands and families. She and husband Kieth (d. 1987) never ceased to help out their children and grandchildren in every endeavor. See obit in this issue. This issue is dedicated to the memory of Dorothy & Kieth Bonnell (last page).

Newsletter Contest: Good News! We have moved from 'Honorable Mention' last year to "Editorial Excellence!" for 1997 Surname Newsletters, Two judges critiqued two of our newsletters and our scores are in this issue. Anyone writing a newsletter may want to copy the list of categories to enhance their newsletter. Teri and I were happy that the things in the newsletter most important to us got high scores; Historic interest. General Interest, and most especially 'service to readers'. They suggest the use of more graphics (I don't use as many, as we try to cram as much information in each issue) and stories of notorious or outstanding ancestors. (We did do that, but the issues they critiqued may not have had them). We are learning and improving. Until I figure out my scanner better, we won't have good photos.

Research in Salt Lake City, Utah; Yippee!!!! Teri and I (and others) are tentatively scheduled for a trip Nov 16-23, staying at the Best Western (formerly the Howard Johnson) Hotel next to the Family History Library. Anyone there at the same time, look us up. We eat at the HJ - coffee shop after the library closes. We will dedicate one whole day to Bonnell/ Bunnell etc. research for the newsletter.

Charles Bunnell - Univ. of Alaska President - Assist. Editor Teri Bonnell brought me a book back from her trip to Alaska in June " Farthest North College President" - the story of Charles Bunnell. Shortly after, Clem Bunnell, subscriber sent me a clipping and picture of a sculpture of this man. Clem sent Wm Austin this book and William Austin has included Charles Bunnell's lineage in the Direct Line Section this issue.

Questions to the Editor:

Q. Do I have to put in a Special Request to have my direct line be published?

A. No, it will be published as I receive it, unless requested otherwise by you. If you don't see it, write!

Q. Should I send in births of our grandchildren?

A. Yes. Send in ALL birth, death certificates, obits, marriages of any blood or marriage related Bonnell, Bunnell, Bumell, etc. to the Newsletter for publishing, filing, or future issues. In another hundred years, or less, someone will be very grateful you did! And I can't stress this enough PLEASE put your name and address on EVERY paper you send me (or anyone else) - they sometimes (most likely will) get separated.

INDEX to Information received:

Exchanging Information:

As I receive subscriptions, there are also letters or queries on different lines. As I find the same names, with the help of Teri Bonnell, sister-in-law, and good friend, who has offered to help me, we will try to alert others tracing the same names in the line and urge them to contact each other for exchanging information. Send in information you want shared or printed.

Research Gathered', INDEX; in each issue, so you can contact the newsletter, or the compiler of the information. I would like to encourage subscribers to contact each other and share information. There is an enormous pile of gathered information in our files that did us little or no good, but may be a major breakthrough for someone else. Please mail corrections and results to the Newsletter.

Sharing Research Information: We all have research we have collected over the years that didn't help us, but may help others in their research. Claude Bunnell has a very large data base full of Bunnells of every spelling that he has collected over the years and has used Proven Sources, such as Birth, Death and Marriage, etc. He has generously offered to answer queries for us and share his information. He asks that, if you would, send him proven sources you have collected of Birth, Death, Marriage, etc.. to add to his research for sharing with the rest of us. Send queries to me, I will print them in the newsletter and forward them to him. He will send you (and me) a copy of his answer. But.....the query is for all of us to try to answer and add to, if we can. If I receive the answer in time. I'll print it with the query.

QUERIES: AUGUST 1998

Queries are FREE to subscribers. (10 cents a word, $4 minimum for non subsc.) Keep them brief, they will be published as received and as room permits. Claude Bunnell will be sent all queries to check in his database, but we want readers to also add to the answers here. Please feel free to write the addresses at the end of the query or the newsletter with your reply. Claude Bunnell, 408 23 rd St., Ocean City, NJ. 08226 (Summer Address) CB# - in Claudes Database!

40. BLACKFORD. BUNNELL. DANIELS

StIU need correct date of marriage of Stephen BUNNELL CB300135 and Mary (DANIELS) BLACKFORD? If we can find correct date, it might help to prove ages of their children: James, Jonas, Brazilla, David, Rhoda, Stephen Jr., Mary (Jane), Nathaniel. Jane Beal Bailey - 1301 Richard St, Miamisburg, OH. 45342-1951 (also see Direct Line, this issue)

From William Austin: check newsletter Vol. VII No. 2, pg 25-26. for my analysis of this problem. It doesn't answer the question, but you can see why she is searching/or this marriage dale. (Ed. note. If I get the time, I'll look this up and print it before I publish this.)

41. BUNNELL. COOLEY. YALE

I am descended from William, Benjamin, Benjamin, Solomon, Benjamin, Solomon, Eleanor. CB320277 I am looking for additional information of Eleanor BUNNELL b. Apr. 22, 1822 d. Oct 5, 1855 who married William COOLEY. Their children were: Olive, Lester (Warren Lester), Aurelia and Mary. Looking for dates, locations, marriages, ANY and ALL information. William's (Cooley) second wife was Mary Ann YALE. Christine Gembinski 43453 Interlaken Dr., Sterling Heights, MI] 4831 3 or E-Mail- 102522.63@compuserve.com. *

From William Austin; I sent her a complete report on Eleanor (Bunnell) Cooleys Bunnell ancestry. I gather the info she is looking for relates to Eleanor herself and her children.

42. BONNELL. DANIEL GRAY.

I have been in touch with Bill Austin and Claude Bonnel, but although both have been very helpful, neither has been able to solve my dilemma as to the parentage of David BONNELL. At least one other subscriber, Bertha Groothouse, has also been helpful. I suspect we're only a generation or so away from being able to solve the problem, and if we ever do, my hunch is the line will lead us to the Nathaniel Bonnell branch that went from Massachusetts to New Jersey. The naming patterns are very suggestive. In the meantime, we're always open to suggestions- David BONNELL may have been the son of William BONNELL, Sr., who certified the age of bride Lydia DANIEL, who m. Benjamin GRAY, Mercer Co., KY 29 Jul 1801. (See direct lines) Marjorie Gibbs. P 0 Box 55, Union Springs, NY 13160-0055.

43. BUNNELL

I am the granddaughter of Isaac E. Bunnell. CB006721 I am having trouble tracing this family. I find Isaac with his father, James E. BUNNELL CB006719, in 1880 in Iowa and 1920 in Missouri but cannot prove where they were before 1880 and between 1880 and 1920. The son (my grandfather) should have been in Minn. I am enclosing what I have on my line of Bunnefls. (see Direct Lines section this issue) I am willing to pay for postage and copy costs. Joyce I. May - 5541 NW Greenhills Rd, Topeka, KS. 66618. EMail-jmayl739@aol.com

44. BUNNELL

It is over 200 years since the birth of Hannah BUNNELL, who is my first tie to the Bunnell name. I am enclosing a pedigree chart for Hannah, (see direct line area this issue) I am looking for corrections, history, additions to Pedigree, etc. I have talked to William Austin newsletter in the past but it did not meet my needs. It was simply too current. Do you have back issues or current issue about the Bonnell before 1800? Thank you. Please keep in touch. A. Vincent - 105 Melrose St., Modesto, CA. 95354.

EDITORS NOTE: Looking up a few things in the past 'Bunnell/Bonnell' newsletters edited by William R Austin, I came upon a few things that interest me now, that didn't in 1987. If you have these back issues (1987-1996) go over them every so often. Once you can connect your line, things that didn't concern you before, will concern you now.

Until I connected back to William the Immigrant, there were few people in the newsletter that I could claim to be my own - after connecting, however, many are in my husbands direct line and (naturally) more interesting to read about. Thumb though some of your back issues of these and other family publications you receive every so often.

Letter from Charlotte Blair Stewart: (E-mailed to me)

I had 2 hours to spend in Guernsey Co. last week and found the following! Carole, if you are not familiar with this research, this law suit is VERY important. I do not expect you to run the entire thing, but an extract in the newsletter would be great. I have some more deeds, etc. that I have not typed, but this is the 'kicker'.... you can also change my lineage from starting with Samuel Bunnell in Venango Co, PA to starting with Isaac in Guernsey Co. ALSO; remove Rebecca as Samuel in Ven. Co.'s #2 wife and replace her with Catherine CRULL married 1831 Ven. Co. and change Samuel's death date to After 1860... Charlotte Blair Stewart - (on the internet)

These films can be ordered from the LDS Family History Center in Salt Lake City by your local LDS library for loan to search, in your local LDS library. After finding your (possibly) relative, they will have an order form that they send to the British Isles for the certificate. If you order it in Salt LC it used to be $1, cheaper than you could order yourself. Sorry, there isn't a lot here, as the trip was for sight-seeing and searching my mothers family, C.

In the old Bunnell Newsletters there was a discussion about two Bunnell marriages to Coover men. I think it was in regard to Erie Co. PA, but honestly don't remember for sure. Nonetheless, I found the following that might help someone interested in that family:

Bunnell House - And more; Letter from Richard B, Bunnell, P.E.

There is a logical explanation for the two different spellings on the sign in front of the 'Bunnell House' (Vol 12 # 2 pge 24 - May 1998 Newsletter). The house was commissioned to be built by Nathaniel Bunnell who had changed his name to Bonnell. subsequent occupants changed their names back to 'u', hence the house was locally known as the Bunnell house. Many of the details are from my wife, Eris' notes. Nathaniel was the brother of Solomon Bunnell (1) in my direct line. (see)

Also; With reference to your newsletter Vol. 11. #4. page 14, John Wolverton's ancestor chart. Missing are several members of the Crane family from North Jersey. I suggest Mr. Wolverton contact: The Cranford Historical Society, 38 Springfield Ave., Cranford, NJ 07016 Telephone. (908) 276-0082. •

Cranford is approximately midway between Elizabethtown (now Elizabeth) and the Western Fields (now Westfield, NJ). Cranford was originally Crane's Ford where the Crane homestead was near the ford across the Rahway River. I phoned the Society and they indicated a willingness to help in any way with the missing names.

In the mean time, keep up the good work on your most excellent newsletter. Most sincerely, Richard & Ens Bunnell

Sarah Heller Conrad Bunnell

From Maurine Schofield Nielson - 545 S 4450 E., Orem, UT 84097-6425

She sent in was a page of transcription and a copy from "The Ensign" Jan. 1997 - "By the Gift and Power of God" - Elder Neal A Maxwell - about Joseph Smith and the Mormons. A marked portion of this page reads; "We marvel that the Prophet Joseph Smith worked completely without referring to any other source. None of the 12 people who either participated or merely observed mentioned Joseph's having any reference materials present. (The 12 people were Emma Smith, Martin Harris, Oliver Cowdery, Elizabeth Ann Winner Cowdery, David Witmer, William Smith, Lucy Mack Smith, Michael Morse, Sarah Heller Conrad, Isaac Hale, Reuben Hale, and Joseph Knight Sr.).....

(Maurine typed the information below from the tape for James Lewis Nielson 1974)

I am James Lewis Nielsen, great grandson of Sarah Heller Conrad Bunnell. Was my grandfather's, Samuel Gardner Bunnell's, mother. David Edwin Bunnell, my great grandfather, married Sarah Heller Conrad, on April 1830 in Elmira, Canago County, New York. He joined the Church the 21st of September 1831. We are not sure when Sarah Heller Conrad was baptized. We are not sure if she was a member of the Church or not when they were married.

We are especially interested in Peari Bunnell Newell who was a full cousin of my mother, and is the daughter of Daniel Kimball Bunnell - the oldest son of David Edwin and Sarah Helleer Conrad Bunnell. Daniel Kimball and my grandfather, Samuel Gardner Bunnell, were full brothers.

We are especially interested in Pearl Newell because she lived with her grandmother, Sarah, and heard her tell the sacred story of the final days when the Prophet and Oliver Cowdery were completing the translations of the Book of Mormon at the Peter Whitmer home near Fayette, Seneca County, New York approximately twenty miles south of the Hill Cumorah.

Sarah Heller Conrad was hired as a housekeeper at the Peter Whitmer home at the time when the final pages of the Book of Mormon were being translated. She saw the Prophet and Oliver coining and going from the upstairs room where the translating was being done. She was impressed with their angelic appearance as they came down from the upstairs each day after the translating. Finally, she insisted that the Whitmers tell here what was going on. This experience led to her conversion to the Church and later she and her family moved to Utah.

After arriving in Utah they were called to settle in the Provo area where they lived the remainder of their lives. They are buried in the Provo City Cemetery. David Edwin Bunnell died in the year 1865. Sarah lived until 1903.

Peari Bunnell lived with her grandmother part of the time as a young girl while attending school. She remembers her grandmother recite.....(end of paper)

Memory of Bunnell 'striding on' - by Ingrid Cogdill, Staff Writer

From Fairbanks Daily News-Miner, Fairbanks, Alaska - Friday, July 22, 1988 (sent in by Clement M Bonnell)

Charles Bunnell president of University of Alaska, Fairbanks-1921-1949

The life size sculpture of the first president of the University of Alaska portrays a familiar scene to Charles Bunnell's daughter, Jean Bunnell Kennedy for the dedication of the sculpture at the University of Alaska, Fairbanks. She told friends earlier that she considered the sculpture a "fabulous piece of work." There were enough contributions to honor Bunnell that a scholarship fund in his name will be established.

Glen Franklin, chairman of the commemorative statue committee, told friends, colleagues and relatives of the UA first president that there is about $19,400 to spare. "Our intention is that it should be an ongoing fund to which continuing contributions can be made." Franklin said. In light of Bunnell's work as a lawyer, he added, the committee also thought it would be fitting to designate the scholarships for pre-law students.

Funding for the work included $36,500 in private donations and $25,000 appropriated by the Legislature. The statue by Cordova sculptor Joan Bugbee Jackson is on permanent display outside Signers' Hall. Thursday's unveiling included talks by retired UAF professor Earl Beistiine, who served as master of ceremonies, and Patrick O'Neill, a mining consultant.

Bunnell served as president of the university between 1921 and 1949. He died in 1956.

Jackson said reading about Bunnell, talking to his friends and understanding the events that shaped his life made her feel as though she knew him. It was necessary to learn about both his strengths and vulnerabilities, she said. "That's what made him a human being."

Bunnell is depicted as a middle-aged man with pride, purpose, and a sense of achievement. He is dressed in his gown and doctoral hood, on his way to a commencement exercise. "I don't imagine that he ever moved slowly." Jackson said. He was also known for his frugal nature; hence the worn heels on his shoes. "He probably wouldn't have bought a new pair just for graduation," Jackson said. "And he was just as likely to keep the same pair on afterward when he worked in his garden. I've come to know a man whose hand I've never shaken but understand as intimately as any human is able to understand another." she told the group.

"Now when I see a picture of him, my first thought is 'Oh, there's a picture of a friend of mine.' and then I realize that I've never even met him. I just feel like I have." Jackson said.

Mrs. Rebecca Keeler Bunnell - Davis - Teacher from Richard B. Bunnell, PA. •

Rebecca R. Bunnell was the daughter of Isaac and Anna Overfield Bunnell, granddaughter of Paul and Hannah DePui Overfield, and great-granddaughter of Paul Sen. and Rebecca Marshall Overfield originally of Bucks Co., now Monroe County. PA,

1 SCULPTURE UNVEILED - Sculptor Joan Bugbee Jackson, left, talks with Jean Bunnell Kennedy following the dedication of a statue of her father Charles Bunnell, outside Signers' Hall at the University of Alaska, Fairbanks.

She was born May 23, 1822, in Braintrim, Wyoming County, and her Father dying in 1832, left her but a child to aid her Mother's energetic efforts to pay for their farm, and rear and educate a family of 8 children. Then the oldest brother John W. and sister Hannah settled in homes of their own; a younger sister Margaret, (who died) by drowning in the Susquehanna river had joined the beloved Father in the Spirit World, when Rebecca's Mother was suddenly stricken and called away, Oct 10, 1843, thus leaving her but 21 and the eldest of the remaining orphans on whom the blow of this 2nd bereavment fell heaviest!

The family ties had to be severed; the children had to be separated: Anna, the youngest went to live with her Aunt Margaret, Charles Kenney's wife of Black Walnut: the 2 boys went with their Bro. John W. and their Sis., Hannah, while the 4th child went to Uncle Nicholas Overfield of Brick Chapel.

Rebecca prepared herself for the Teachers Profession, by adding to her district school advantages other early years, 2 additional years of educational opportunities - the last being spent at Wyoming Seminary when that now great school, was in its infancy.

She became a distinguished educator in the district schools, the writer being sent to her large spring school at the Davis District, when a slender girl of 10 years, a distance of 2 or more miles! And from that term of 1847, she had the remarkable distinction of having 29 of those pupils afterward become among the bravest soldiers of the Civil War!

But all those years of teaching, Rebecca was never unmindful other orphaned brothers and sister, but continued looking after their interests; and even relinquished the idea and opportunity of going West where she could have doubled her wages for teaching, because she could not consent to a separation from them.

She was married to Rodolphus Schoonover Davis, son of James and Mary Schoonover Davis of Auburn, Susquehanna Co., Penna. June 3, 1848. Mr. Davis was a farmer located on a farm chopped from the forests not more than 2 decades earlier, on the extreme border of the counties - Sussquehanna and Wyoming, on the road from Montrose to Meshoppen.

He also was well read in the Laws of Blackstone, reported testimony of lawsuits, and was a formidable adversary against which, the Town gentry never coveted a personal collision. He was good on counsel for knotty point of law'.

From the Editor; In closing I would like to dedicate this issue of the Bunnell/Bonnell newsletter to my late mother and father in law, Dorothy Mae (Carty) & Bun "Kieth" Bonnell. Without them, my little family would not be what it is. We would not have been able to accomplish many hopes, dreams and careers that they made possible. If we put out the effort, they were always there to help physically, financially and emotionally when their family needed them

Kieth was a self made man who worked as mechanic, plumber and could make anything work. If it didn't work, he invented something that would. He left us in 1987 and his wife never have to work outside the home.

From England to America, to Canada and back, just as their ancestors, they gave each of their four children a piece of land to build a home, hammering and nailing beside them. They kept their children and grandchildren close with their outstretched arms of love and support in every way. They also added the extra encouragement needed for all of us to succeed in our choices. If we failed, they were there to pick us up and direct us. They will be sorely missed by us all.
