I've scanned the etching of LHB that appears in the 4th edition of Discovery of the Yosemite by LHB, 1911. The publisher, G.W. Gerlicher was apparently a personal friend of LHB. He writes the following about the etching in his introduction: "...the portrait of Dr. Bunnell. We have thought best to discard the likeness taken in his later years, and which was printed in the former edition; and we have reproduced the steel engraving which appeared in the earlier issues of the work. This portrait is generally recognized as a very accurate depiction of the Doctor in his vigorous manhood, and gives the reader a correct impression of the rugged, kindly, simple and sincere character of this hardy pioneer, whose reverent soul first thrilled to the grandeur and beauty of the Yosemite, and who gave a name not only to the Valley itself, but also to many of the objects of interest which it contains."

"An intimate friendship with Dr. Bunnell, dating from 1879, gives the publisher a peculiar pleasure in perpetuating this narrative..."

Chet Bunnell, who happens to be my cousin, sent a couple of e-mails that gave me a whole new outlook on the name Bunnell. I've consolidated them into a single missive. By the way, the Oxford English Dictionary he quotes is an on-line subscription version, not the version available for free on-line.

I just discovered that bunnell is a drink.

From the Oxford English Dictionary [on-line]: "A beverage made from the crushed apples or pears, after nearly all the juice has been expressed for the cider or perry."

Barnfield, Richard, 1574-1627, The affectionate shepherd Containing the complaint of Daphnis for the loue of Ganymede., London : Printed by Iohn Danter for T. G[ubbin] and E. N[ewman] and are to bee sold in Saint Dunstones Church-yard [sic] in Fleetstreet, 1594

"Or wilt thou drinke a cup of new-made Wine
Froathing at top, mixt with a dish of Creame;
And Straw-berries, or Bil-berries in their prime,
Bath'd in a melting Sugar-Candie streame:
Bunnell and Perry I haue for thee (alone)
When Vynes are dead, and all the Grapes are gone."

Robertson, William: Phraseologia generalis; a full large and general phrase book 1681 (1693). 1327 A drink much like our Bunnell, in the Perry-countrie."

We can now attach a previously "Unattached Branch" that was brought to our attention by Betty Sorenson of Northbrook, IL and mentioned in the November 2003 issue on pages 63 and 64. Deb T. Bunnell is an author of several children's books including some foreign language ones. I had sent an e-mail to her publisher but had given up hope of hearing from her. Then I received the following:

Dear Charlie & Pat Bunnell,

Months ago I received your e-mail forwarded to me by Dover publications (by snail mail) requesting info about our Bunnells. My husband's name is Roger Franklin Bunnell. He was raised in Shillington, PA. born in 1953. His brother Randall Evan, was born in 1950. Their father is Franklin Gersham Bunnell, born in 1916, married Dorothea Elizabeth Ruth (born in 1920) in 1945.

Franklin's family was from Bushkill, Pike County, PA. His father was Gersham Henry, and he had two brothers: Gersham Henry (Jr.) and James Andrew. Franklin's mother's maiden name was Clara Mary Haffling.

Good luck with your project.

Sincerely, Deb Bunnell

[Ed. Note: I have included her lineage in the Direct Lines section.]

Readers may remember that last January, Carol and Dale Brotzman's house burned down. She has been a steady contributor to the newsletter long before she started subscribing. I e-mailed her the end of November and asked how the rebuilding of their new house was coming along. Her response:

From: Brotzmans [mailto:brotzman@dfnow.com]

Subject: Re: House

Nice and warm. We are in. Got moved in about 2 weeks ago.
It was nice to have everyone home for Thanksgiving and have plenty of room again.
Hope you have a wonderful holiday season. I couldn't help but decorate already.
I have been busy for the last month gathering data on Philip Van Doren Stern, the writer of "Its A Wonderful Life". He happened to be born in Wyalusing, PA and Dave Keeler asked me to do the research on his family. It should be in the paper this week, but not very much of his genealogy that I dug up. He is related to the local Santees but no one else I can find. His father Isadore Stern was a traveling merchant.
Happy Holiday's
Carol

Patrick (Pat) Cummins, thecomyn@aol.com, or 10423 Fyfe Court, Fairfax, VA 22032 (703) 250-4619 is looking for a possible Bunnell connection. He also has a couple of good websites at Sketch of a Pioneer Who Has Lived in Franklin County for Eighty Years and www.thecomyn.com.

I understand you have a Bunnell newsletter, and would appreciate any assistance. Recognize this is a long shot, but I am trying to find out where my Allison Bunnell Cummins, b. 22 Oct 1824 in Franklin Co., IN, got his middle name. He might have been named for a Bunnell somewhere back in the line in either PA or IN. Allison's father was John Cummins, b. 1795 in [Westmoreland Co] PA, his mother was Anne Smalley, b. 1795 in PA. They were married in Franklin Co., IN, on 8 Jan 1824. Hoping for any leads or suggestions.

[Ed. Note: I checked Claude's database for any Bunnell-Cummins/Cummings or Bunnell-Smalley connections and found none of the right time and place. I also found no Bunnells in those counties in the census during the right time periods. If you can help him, drop him a line or e-mail

We recently heard from someone else in British Columbia. Sylvia Hamilton of Meadow Creek, B.C. has a couple of paintings done by a Bunnell and she's trying to find out who he or she may be. I went through the Smithsonian, various on-line search engines, even e-bay, but couldn't find a Bunnell artist of that time period who did wildlife, specifically cats, paintings. I've included photos of the paintings and of the signature the artist used. If you can provide any information, please let her know. I'd love to hear about it also. Here's what she says:

"You don't know me but I am interested in the Bunnell name. I live in a small community in British Columbia, but I understand that this person was originally from the United States. I have in my possession two painting that have be done by a painter by the name of Bunnell. These paintings are I believe done in water colors and they are of Jaguars and leopards. They were given to my mother in approx. 1940 or early 1950. My mother is still alive and this is the information that she has given me to go by. I understand at the time this was a person passing through this area and my family was hospitable to him so he gave them the pictures. They are absolutely beautiful pictures. I have since had them framed and have had many offers for them.

What I am asking is? Are there any watercolor artists in your family history about 1940? I would believe him/her to be around the age of 30-50. Somewhere in that area. I have little to go on and I have searched the internet for answers but cannot find any artist that have done watercolors of animal. I would be greatly appreciated if you had any answers for me. Please email me back if you have any insight to this? Thank you in advance for helping me if you are able.

Yours truly Sylvia Hamilton Box 133 Meadow Creek, B.C. V0G 1N0 or Phone (250) 366-4676, or swhamilt@direct.ca."

WW I Draft Registration

On Ancestry.com I recently found the WW I draft registration cards. Three different forms were used so the information is not consistent but it does provide some useful information. There are a lot of them: 205 Bonnells and 228 Bunnells. I'll start putting the info in the newsletter with this issue. I can only fit about 10 names on a page so it will take about 44 pages to cover all of them. (? = illegible)

Biographies

The following is from a CD copy of "Memoirs of the Miami Valley [Ohio]" Vol. III originally published by R.O. Law Company, Chicago, 1920, pages 329 - 330.

Lee Andrew Bonnell, a farmer of Symmes township, was born in this township, October 20, 1850, son of Aaron and Margaret (Deckey) Bonnell, native of Pennsylvania and Ohio, respectively. The paternal grandfather, Moses Bonnell, came to Hamilton county, settling in Symmes township, on the farm now owned by his grandson, and here he followed farming until his death. Aaron Bonnell was reared on this farm, and attended the district schools. He became a farmer, and in the course of time purchased the old homestead, on which he lived until his death. He was a Democrat, and served at one time as a member of the school board of his district. A man of strong religious convictions he became a Universalist. The children born to him and his wife were: Hannah and George D., both of whom are deceased; William J., who lives in Symmes township; Lee Andrew, who was the fourth in order of birth; and Moses F., who is a farmer of Symmes township. Growing up in his native township, Lee Andrew Bonnell learned to be a telegrapher, and became an operator on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Madeira, Ohio, but after a time spent in this work, returned to the farm. Later he owned and operated a grocery at Cincinnati, but after a year, located permanently on the farm where he is carrying on general farming. His property consists of fifty-one acres of excellent land and he has it in an excellent state of cultivation. Independent in his politics, he has been chosen several times to serve as a school director. September 29, 1874, Mr. Bonnell was married to Louisa, daughter of Augustus Oskamp and his wife, Mrs. Mary (Frey) Oskamp, of Cincinnati. Mrs. Bonnell was born at Cincinnati, June 20, 1856, and educated in the city graded and high schools. She died May 4, 1918, leaving one son, August Oskamp Bonnell, who is living at home. He has a daughter, Martha Louisa Bonnell.

Moses F. Bonnell, one of the farmers of Symmes township, was born on his father's farm in this township, April 21, 1855, son of Aaron and Margaret (Deckey) Bonnell, natives of Pennsylvania and Ohio, respectively, and grandson of Moses Bonnell, the founder of the family in Symmes township. He bought the farm now owned by Lee Andrew Bonnell, and on it passed the rest of his life. Aaron Bonnell subsequently bought this property, and conducted it until his death. He and his wife had the following children: Hannah and George D., both of whom are deceased; William J., who is a farmer of Symmes township; Lee Andrew, who owns the homestead; and Moses F., who was the youngest. After he had completed his educational training in the local schools, Moses F. Bonnell began farming on a rented farm, but after two years, took possession of forty acres of land he inherited from his father's estate, on section 31, Symmes township, and here he is engaged in general and dairy farming. A Democrat, he has been active in local politics, and has served on the school board, as did his father before him. He is a Universalist, and his father held to the same religious belief. September 21, 1881, Mr. Bonnell was married to Tillie B., daughter of George and Sarah (Parrott) Riker, of Montgomery, Ohio. Mrs. Bonnell was born at Montgomery, Ohio, February 25, 1861, and was educated in its public schools. Mr. and Mrs. Bonnell became the parents of two children: Gordon R., who is a resident of Madeira, Ohio; and Emily, who is the wife of William Green, of Mason, Ohio, has a daughter, Wilda Marie Green.

Landmarks

Bunnell's Pond, Bridgeport, Fairfield Co., CT: Bunnell's Pond sits in Beardsley Park and the Beardsley Park Zoological Gardens in Bridgeport. It is formed by a dam on the Pequonnock River. Ray Cassidy raycassidy@verizon.net, whom I found through the RootsWeb site for Fairfield Co, sent this photo and wrote that:

"I don't know who Bunnell Pond was named after, but the original dam was washed out on July 29-30, 1905. The second dam was rebuilt on a much larger scale which created Bunnell Pond. Ice was harvested from the Pond for many years. A huge ice house standing next to the dam burned in the '30s, as I recall, and nearly took many of the houses in the neighborhood with it. The fire could be seen for miles. As a child, my wife lived a block away from it, across from Beardsley Park; and she still recalls how she and her brothers put out flying embers that showered the neighborhood.

I used to swim in the Pond and off of the dam in the summer and skate on it during the winter. It was a dangerous place to swim. Several people drowned in it over the years, among them a good friend of mine."

Does anyone know the history of the naming of the pond?

This shows the effects of the 1905 dam break. The area had received over 11 inches of rain in 16 hours. A Pictorial History of Bridgeport by David Palmquist, 1981

Publications

I'm now looking for a copy of William Bunnell and his Descendants by Ruth Cost Duncan. If you know of one available for purchase, please let me know.

Brandon Bunnell: I am confident that one of our readers will know who this young man is. Cecil Bunnell, cecil-anna@bunnellfamily.com or 1843 State Route 34, Genoa, NY 13071 brought Brandon to our attention and he can be seen at <http://www.gannon.edu/sports/men/wrestling/2004Profiles/bunnell.ihtml>

Brandon Bunnell is a Sophomore at Gannon University, Erie, PA. He graduated from Langley High School, Pittsburg, PA. He is on the wrestling team at Gannon. Is Brandon related to any of our subscribers?

Claude's Corner

Claude wrote to provide some additional information regarding a couple of items in the previous edition.

Regarding Dennis & Julie Bunnell in Julie Bunnell's obituary on pages 65 and 66.

I believe 361206 Dennis may be the husb of Julia. Also 000687 Dennis may be the same. We still need proof to put this all together. Hope this helps.

[Ed. Note: Does anyone have info on Dennis Bunnell, 361206, son of Freeman and Althea (Hibbard) Bunnell, born in the 1930s, or Dennis Bunnell, 000687, about whom we only know that in 1980, he lived at 1110 SW 129TH AV, Miami, FL? What we're looking for is something that links or proves there is no link between one of them and the Dennis Bunnell mentioned above. Also, are the two Dennis Bunnells in Claude's databse the same person?]

I had sent the following e-mail to Claude regarding the bio of J.N. Bunnell on pages 72 and 73 of the last issue::

Greetings Claude,

I am going to print the bio on J.N. Bunnell that is in the "Biographical and Genealogical Record of La Salle and Grundy Counties Illinois" page 565 thru 568. When checking your data base to find J. N. he is 320908, John Nelson Bunnell. But I notice that his mother's name as listed in your data base, Betsey Hart, doesn't match what's in the bio, Elizabeth Harger. Also, the bio states he had only one sister, Elizabeth, but the database shows he had 6 brothers and sisters. I was wondering if you had any idea on why the difference.

Claude's Response:

"I have studied your email on 320908 J N Bunnell. First, I do not have the source that showed J N was the son of William & Betsey, However, assuming J N was the son of William & Elizabeth (Betsey) Hart, We can show that in the 1820 US Census, they had a dau born 1811-20. She appears again in the 1840 census with parents. I do not have an 1830 census listing for William. In 1840 William & Betsey have a son born 1836-40 (DARWIN HART) and 2 daus born 1811-20 & 1821-25 (I can not identify them among William's children). In the 1850 census there were 3 daus listed, Laurie 17, Dolly 15 & Ellen 7. The census records show 1 son and 5 daus. The dau born 1811-20 might be Elizabeth mentioned in the J N bio. Also the dau born 1821-25 may be Jennette born 1827. My source for listing William Levi and John Nelson as sons is lost. It would appear William & Betsey had at least 3 male & 5 female children. Note the son Darwin Hart apparently named for his mother Betsey Hart.

Also, I have the article you referenced and did as much comparison as my resources allowed. I feel some of the statements are inaccurate. Hope this is useful, Claude."

Post Script

February was a busy month for us. As we mentioned in the last issue, we had planned to be gone most of the month and we were successful. We spent time in Satellite Beach and Key West, FL and went on a 10 day cruise from Ft. Lauderdale to Costa Rica, Panama Canal, Grand Cayman, Cozumel, Belize and back to Ft. Lauderdale. We went on the Princess lines and it was a great trip. But, we were out of e-mail range most of the time so our mail boxes filled up quickly and many of you may have received a "mailbox full" response to your e-mails. If so, you can resend them and we'll receive them now.
